Deem to Satisfy Application

Dear Adrian Brown

I am pleased to inform you that your company has been registered with CHAS as a result of our deem to satisfy arrangement with SafeContractor that negates the need for you have a full CHAS Assessment.

The CHAS accreditation will be valid until 10/01/2019 in line with the most recent assessment you underwent with SafeContractor.

Your CHAS accreditation certificate is part of this service and will be issued automatically. Please allow up to 10 working days to receive your accreditation pack; an electronic copy of your certificate will also be emailed with this approval letter.

While registered with CHAS, you are also eligible to access CHAS Membership Services and our four free PAS91 applications:

<https://www.chas.co.uk/our-services/membership-services>

<https://www.chas.co.uk/our-services/pas91>

Please note that to maintain your CHAS accreditation; you will need to renew this by applying to CHAS each year, either by having a direct assessment, by using the new findings from SafeContractor or any other SSIP member.

Yours sincerely

Suzie Walker
Operations Manager
